

This section covers statistical indicators about Gender and Youth. It presents empirical data of socio-economic indicators in the country about the Youth from which trends of development, growth levels and interventions can be assessed.

Youth

At least 24.7% of youth population live in households below the poverty line while only 4.9% of youth population live in households below the extreme poverty...

Gender

At least 68.9% of Rwandan households are engaged in agricultural activities and 94.8% of women farmers have access to land compared to 93.7% of men.

Save as PDF 